WEDNESDAY, MAY 26. 1736.

7/285.

Veletri, April 27. O. S.

THE Cardinal our Bishop, finding he could not persuade the People to lay down their Arms, and let the Spaniards pass through the Town, pretended to go to Church in the Suburbs for Devotion, but went directly to Rome, was no sooner gone, but the Governor set up the Pope's Order, and declared his Eminency would not come back; which was a very great Mortification to the People, who offered to lay down their Arms, and do every thing that the Pope order'd, even to the Admission of the Spaniards, desiring that the Cardinal might be acquainted with it, and intreated to come back, which was done accordingly; but his Eminency refused to come, and in his room came about 100 of the Pope's Serjeants, headed by a Hangman, and at the same time a Detachment of 600 Spaniards, with the Marshal de Vieuville at their Head, arriving in the Neighbourhood, the Magistrates in a Body went to meet him, and returning again to Town soon after, he order'd the Militia to mount on Horfeback, and then went with them a second Time to meet the Spaniards; upon which the Marshal sending a Guard of 40 Men towards our Militia, and crying out God bless the Pope, he order'd them to lay down their Arms. The next Morning 500 Grenadiers, and the like Number of Fusiliers, enter'd the Town under Command of the Marshal, who immediately caused Gibbets to be set up in several Places, and order'd every Man to lay down his Arms, and those that were fled, to return forthwith to their Houses. The Conternation here, in short, is inconceivable. The Spaniards take the Name of the Pope's Auxiliaries, which at this Juncture sounds as terribly here, as the Name of an Enemy.

Rome, May 1. O. S. The Pope, for fear of disaffection the Spaniards, has not only obliged the Inhabitants of Veletri to receive them, but has given their Leader, the Marshal de Vieuville, an extensive Power, both in that Town and its Neighbourhood, and has remitted him an Assignment upon the Citizens for 15,000 Crowns. He has also ordered the Governor of Anagni to send 100 Measures of Oats, and a Number of Beds to Valmonte, for the Service of the Spaniards, and to oblige the Clergy, if need be, by Force to contribute thereto. But for all this Complaisance, Spain is proceeding to the same Extremities, as if the Pope had given them as much Provocation as his Subjects.

Vienne, May 8. O. S. The Court has received an Express from Petersburg, with the Confirmation of the Report that the Russians had taken Asoph. And we hear, that the Turks, in order to oppose their further Progress, have muster'd all their Troops in Romania, Albania, Bosnia, Thessaly, Macedonia, and several other Provinces, and that they have form'd an Army of 130,000 Men, which is in full March. — We heard Yesterday by the Post from Belgrade, that the Turkish Merchants there have received Letters from their Friends and Relations at Constantinople and other Places, advising them, that 'tis high Time for them to retire with their Families and Effects to Turkey.

Dantzick, May 9. O. S. The Saxons, to the Number of 300 Men, have at length evacuated Fort Weifelmunde; and their Commander has all along observed good Discipline, that, when he went away, the Magistrates made him a Present of 3000 Crowns. The fine we are to pay to the King, is reduced to 100,000 Rix-dollars. The fine Furniture which was sent from France for the Apartments of King Stanislaus during his Residence at Koningsberg, is left behind, and there, it is believed, it will for ever remain, to perpetuate the Memory of that Prince.

Hanover, May 14. O. S. Sunday last Prayers were set up for the first Time, in all the Churches of this Electorate, for her Royal Highness the Princess of Wales; and at the same time there was a Thanksgiving on account of her Marriage with the Prince her illustrious Husband. — A Bayliff of the County of Lippe having lately taken a tall Trooper out of one of the Hanoverian Regiments, and delivered him to a Prussian Officer, he was apprehended some Days ago, and committed Prisoner to the Guard-Room at Hamelen, since which he has been clapped up in the Tower where Krumholtz ended his Days, that turbulent, seditious Preacher, who was imprisoned there for stirring up the Hamburgers against their Magistrates. But the bare Arrest of this Officer being not sufficient to satisfy our Regency for the Insult committed on their Dignity by the carrying off of that Life Guard Man, four Squadrons of Dragoons are sent into that County, to live at Discretion, till we have obtained proper Satisfaction. Mean time we hear from Dermold, that the Countess of Lippe, uneasy to see her Subjects dragoon'd, has already made such moving Representations upon it to the Prussian Court, that, 'tis hoped, the Trooper will very soon be released.

Paris, May 19. O. S. They write from Lyons, that upon Whit-Sun-Eve a Boat, with above three-score People, at a Place where the Stream was very rapid, was dashed against a Mill, so that only four of the Number escaped. — One of the House breakers that murdered the Country Parson mentioned in my last, is apprehended, and committed to the Conciergerie; and last Thursday Night as he entered the Prison, he ask'd, if such a Person, whom he named, was not there, and being told he was, he said, Then he will soon go with me to the Gallows; for tho' I murdered the Priest, 'twas he that killed the Parson's Maid. — The Inhabitants of Bastia have signified to the Governor, that if he does not receive timely Succours, they shall submit to the Viceroy Theodore. — The King has appointed M. Pelletier first President of our Parliament; and the Count de Belleisle to command as his Lieutenant General in the Army under the Marshal de Bourg.

Hague, May 20. O. S. There is privately handed about here, a Pamphlet, intituled, Authentick Pieces relating to the Negotiations between the Courts of France and Sweden, with respect to the Treaty of Subsidies. The first of them is a Letter from the Keeper of the Seals, communicated to the Senate of Stockholm, before the Renewal of the Alliance with Russia. The second is a Memorial from the Ambassador of France, presented to the King of Sweden the 13th of January last. And the third and last is an Ample Answer from his Swedish Majesty to the said Memorial, dated the 8th of March last. These Pieces are the more worthy of Attention, because the Publick has hitherto been misinform'd of the Steps taken by the Court of France, to thwart the Renewal of the Alliance of Russia with Sweden, in which the said Court has nevertheless miscarried. The Reasons of it are very clearly explained in his Swedish Majesty's Answer; and if all Negotiations were as fully unravelled as these are, the Publick would be enabled to form a solid Judgment of Affairs in general.

L O N D O N.

The Address of the University of Cambridge to the King, on-Occasion of the Marriage of his Royal Highness the Prince of Wales.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most loyal Subjects, the Chancellor, Masters and Scholars, of your University of Cambridge, always ambitious to pay our Duty to your Majesty, and gratefully acknowledge your Goodness to your People, do, with the greatest Pleasure, appear before your Majesty upon this happy Occasion.

The Marriage of his Royal Highness the Prince of Wales with a Princess of that illustrious Family, which protected and supported those who so eminently and successfully opposed the Corruptions and Tyranny of the Church of Rome, evidently shews to the World the great Regard which your Majesty entertains for the Protestant Religion, and your Care to transmit the Blessings of your Reign to future Ages.

As the Memory of that noble Prince John Frederick, Elector of Saxony, whose Virtue and heroic Constancy were admired even by his Enemies, must be highly honoured by all Protestants, so we cannot but with the greatest Satisfaction, look upon the Marriage of a Lady descended from him with the Heir apparent of the Crown of Great Britain, as an Earnest of Divine Providence, to reward his worthy Family for what they have suffered by the glorious Adherence of their Ancestor to the Cause of Religion and Liberty.

From this Union of the Saxon with your Majesty's august House, we most justly hope for a Succession of Princes, who, following the Examples of their Royal Progenitors, will defend and maintain the Religious and Civil Rights of their People, and cherish and encourage your University, which has had the Honour to receive from your Majesty, and your Royal Father, distinguishing Marks of Favour and Bounty.

May your Majesty, the best of Fathers, for many Years see the Happiness of the Royal Pair, and thereby receive Addition to your own: May you, through the whole Course of a long Reign, enjoy the greatest Felicity which the most dutiful Subjects ever pray'd and wish'd might attend the most esteem'd and belov'd Princes.

To which his Majesty was pleased to return this most gracious Answer.

I Thank you for your affectionate Congratulations on the Marriage of my Son. The Expressions of your Zeal and Regard for me and my Family, and your Concern for the Protestant Religion, are very agreeable to me. The repeated Marks of your Duty and Loyalty, cannot fail of securing to you the Continuance of my Favour, Encouragement and Protection.

They were introduced by his Grace the Duke of Grafton, Lord Chamberlain of the Household; and all had the Honour to kiss his Majesty's Hand.

They were then introduced to the Queen, by the Earl of Grantham, Lord Chamberlain to her Majesty; to whom the Vice-Chancellor presented the Book of Verses, and made the following Speech.

May it please your Majesty,

THE University of Cambridge begs Leave to present to your Majesty this Testimony of their Joy for the Nuptials of his Royal Highness the Prince with the Princess of Saxe-Gotha.

The Title of Princess of Wales having been, after a very long Intermission, auspiciously revived in your Royal Person, and by your wearing and giving Lustre to it, rendered most grateful to us, earnest have been our Wishes, since your Majesty became possessed of a higher, to see it again renewed in the Consort of his Royal Highness the Prince.

These our Wishes having now received their Completion, and being sensible how much we owe to your Majesty, by whom this and other great Blessings have been conveyed to us, we must think ourselves in Duty bound to pray, that your Majesty may long, very long, be a Sharer in them, and see the Happiness of their Highnesses, and of every other Branch of the Royal Family.

To which her Majesty was pleased to give a most gracious Answer; and they all had the Honour to kiss her Majesty's Hand.

Then they waited upon their Royal Highnesses the Prince and Princess of Wales, to whom the Vice-Chancellor presented the Book of Verses, and made the following Speech

To the PRINCE.

May it please your Royal Highness,

TO receive, with your usual Favour and Goodness, this Present, which waits upon you from the University of Cambridge, to congratulate your most happy Nuptials.

It is a Blessing peculiar to his Majesty's Reign, that instead of anxious Thoughts and Fears which the Marriages of our Princes gave formerly to the People, uneign'd Joy doth now fill their Hearts.

How transported would this Nation in the last Age have been, to see their Princes joined in Marriage to Protestant Princesses. This Blessing, which was denied to them, being, by the Favour of Heaven, granted to us, we are under the greatest Obligations to be thankful for it, and to wish all imaginable Happiness to your Highness: And we hope, that from this auspicious

Marriage will spring a Race of Princes, in Virtue and Goodness equal to the best, in Glory not inferior to the greatest of their Predecessors.

To the PRINCESS.

May it please your Royal Highness,

TO accept this Tribute of the Cambridge Muses, proud to congratulate your happy Nuptials, and celebrate those Accomplishments with which your Highness is adorned, worthy of the Comfort of the Prince of Great Britain.

Your Royal Highness having left your own People, and your Father's House, to complete the Happiness of the Prince, and perpetuate that of Great Britain; it is a Pleasure for us to think, that you will meet with such Returns of tender Affection from their Majesties, Love from your Royal Consort, and Esteem from the British Nation, as will make this Country most agreeable and pleasant to you.

Long may your Royal Highness live the Joy and Delight of the Prince, and in so constant and uninterrupted a Fruition of the greatest Blessings Heaven can bestow upon you, as to be numbered amongst the most happy, as well as the most amiable Princesses.

The Address of the University of Oxford to his Majesty, was as follows.

Most gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Chancellor, Masters, and Scholars of the University of Oxford, humbly beg Leave to congratulate your Majesty upon the Marriage of the Prince and Princess of Wales.

'Tis to your Majesty, and your illustrious House, that this Nation is indebted for the present Possession and Security of their Religion and Liberties; and it was impossible for your Majesty to give a more sensible Proof of your great Care to perpetuate these Blessings to your People, than by this Instance of your Wisdom, in marrying the Heir of your Crown and Virtues to a Princess descended from a Family so eminently distinguished for its steady Adherence to the Protestant Interest.

The great Happiness your People enjoy under your Majesty's mild and auspicious Government, calls for the warmest Returns of Duty and Gratitude from all your Subjects; and we beg Leave to assure your Majesty, that it shall be our constant Endeavours to render ourselves worthy of your Royal Countenance and Protection, by practising the Duties of Affection and Loyalty to your Majesty's Person and Family, and by infilling the same good Principles into the Minds of the Youth committed to our Care.

May that Almighty Power, by whom Kings reign, long preserve your sacred Life a Blessing to this Church and Nation, and may those Virtues, which now add a Lustre to the Crown in your Majesty's Person, be transmitted down to your Royal Progeny through all succeeding Generations.

To which his Majesty was pleased to return this most gracious Answer.

I Thank you for your loyal Address, and for this Instance of your Zeal and Affection for my Person and Family. The Assurances you give me of infilling the same Principles of Duty and Loyalty into the Minds of the Youth committed to your Care, are very acceptable to me, and you may be assured, in Return, of my constant Support, Favour and Protection.

The Universal Family MEDICINE,

Still more and more fam'd, after upwards of Ten Years Success with the Publick.

Is sold by the Author's Appointment, by Mr. King, at the Sign of the Globe in the Poultry, near the Royal Exchange, London; at Mr. Hildyard's, Bookseller in York; and at Mr. Oakley's, Bookseller in Cardiff, Wales; at 3s. the Bottle Retail.

It is to be taken at any Season of the Year, but especially in the Spring and Fall; is so very agreeable to Young and Old, the Children take it without Trouble, a few Drops being Dose; and so gentle, that it weakens not the most delicate For it is a safe and effectual Alternative (in a last Stage where Purging is not necessary; an Excellence indeed of this Medicine, which is a singular Property well known to the Learned, to be in some Cathartick Medicines.

It is in particular,

A Certain and infallible Cure for the SCURVY, tho' of the longest Standing, and attended with the most aggravated Circumstances (a Distemper so common to English People, that not one in a thousand is exempt from it, and great Numbers are sorely afflicted with it) being a cordial Elixir, peculiarly adapted to that Disease in all its Forms of appearing, from the slightest itching Humour in the Blood, to its utmost or last Efforts on human Nature.

For it is a true Specific Cordial, that perfectly cures the Distemper by gentle Evacuation, by Stool and Urine, the only sure and effectual Way perfectly to cure the Scurvy, and prevent Relapses (notwithstanding what may be deemed the contrary) the Truth of which is witnessed to daily, by many Thousands that have taken this Medicine. It so perfectly rectifies the Blood and Juices, that scrophulous Cancers also speedily cured by it; and all Spots, Blotches, Pimples, &c. on the Skin, are quickly and entirely taken off, the Patients made lively and brisk, many chronic Diseases cured, and a due State of Health secured.

It removes all Pain from the Stomach, helps Digestion, opens Obstructions, and is peculiarly serviceable to Maids inclin'd to, or troubled with the Green Sickness. 'Tis the Medicine in the World to destroy Worms in Children or young People, and prevent their Return; for it scours away all the rooky, viscid Humours which breed them in their Bowels, and is so well adapted to all Constitutions, that it is deemed esteemed both in City and Country, the most general Family Medicine that ever was known to preserve Health, and to afford no Business or Recreation.

Good Allowance is given Wholesale by Mr. King for Money to Country Shopkeepers, &c. to sell again. This Medicine will keep many Years, and is sold no where else London: Therefore beware of pyrating Counterfeits, endeavour to shroud under the valid Reputation this Scurvy Medicament has every where obtained by its many Virtues or the Purposes above-mentioned, or any other Suggestions about Names, with an Intent to hinder the People the Benefit of this experienced Medicine, and to know to lose Reputation thereby; but Envy and never want Pretences.

The Directions given with it are large and full.
